OPTION REGISTRATION FOR THE CENTRALIZED ALLOTMENT PROCESS

The selection and allotment of seats including those of In-service candidates will be made by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations through the Centralized Allotment Process (CAP) . In order to participate in the first phase of the centralized process (CAP) to be conducted by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations, candidates should register options online as part of the online application process. The option registration facility will be open from 25.01.2022 . Candidates can submit options by clicking the menu item ‘Option Registration’ available in the home page. The list of colleges/courses to which Commissioner for Entrance Examinations makes allotments will be available in the option registration page. Candidate can give options as per their priority of the course-college-quota combinations in the option list. A candidate need to only give options to a course-college-quota combination, if he/she is sure to join the course and college under the chosen quota, if allotted. Based on the options filed by the candidates within the stipulated time the first phase allotment will be prepared. Detailed notification in this regard will be published later.

The approved prospectus for admission to PG Homoeo Degree Courses will be published in the website soon.

- The nativity/community/category claims made by the candidates in the online application form will be rejected, if the required documents are not uploaded to the online application within the stipulated time.*
- As the allotment to any category or quota seat which a candidate is not eligible for will result in the loss of not only the allotted seat but also all the lower options and any other options which require that category or quota eligibility as a prerequisite, candidates must exercise utmost care while choosing the eligible category claim in the online application. So candidates are advised not to make any category or quota claim in their online application which they would not be able to substantiate with the prescribed supporting documents within the stipulated time limit.*
- Never register options to any course or college or quota which the candidate would not like to join if allotted.*
