12.5 Candidates are advised to strictly observe the date and time of his/her appearance in the Centralized Allotment Process. Candidates should appear at the venue for the allotment process at their own expenses.

12.6 Candidate who fails to appear for the counseling as per schedule will forfeit his /her chance for admission and will not be considered for admission to any future or arising vacancies, irrespective of the rank. However, if a candidate is not able to attend the allotment process on genuine grounds, the parent/guardian, or any authorized person can act as a proxy at the risk of the candidate on production of authorization letter in the form given in Annexure - I. Authorization letter once received will be considered as valid for the entire allotment process, unless the candidate revokes it in writing. A photocopy of the filled up authorization letter should also be brought by the proxy at the time of first appearance. The original authorization letter will be retained and the photocopy will be returned to the proxy with acknowledgement. This photocopy with the acknowledgement on it must be used for subsequent appearance(s) if any.

12.7 Criteria for selection to higher options

12.7.1 If a candidate gets selected for a course of his/her first option, he/she shall not be considered for other options. If a candidate is selected for his/her 2nd or 3rd option, he/she shall be considered for selection for the higher option as per his/her rank in the waitlist if vacancy arises during the validity period of the rank list, provided he/she has joined the course of his/her lower option or relinquished the selection before the scheduled date for the admission.

12.8 The additional seats, if any, sanctioned during the validity of the rank list shall be filled up from the same rank list.

13. Date of Joining: It is mandatory for the candidate to join the course on the date intimated by the Director of Medical Education, if selected at the time of counselling.

13.1 If a candidate does not join the course to which he/she is selected or discontinues the course after joining, his/ her claim for admission for the higher option shall be forfeit.

13.2 Joining time: No extension of joining time shall be granted by the Director of Medical Education to the allotted candidates under any circumstances.

13.3 Leave: If any candidate requires leave, he/she shall join the course within the stipulated time and apply for leave to the Principal concerned. PG Nursing students are permitted to avail Casual Leave for 20 days in a year, but not more than 10 days at a stretch. Any other leave will entail extension of the course.

13.4 Transfer: No transfer shall be allowed from one college to the other after closing of admission. Re-allotment alone shall be considered before the closing of admission.

- 14 Stipend: Students admitted to PG course are eligible for stipend as per Government Orders passed from time to time.
- 14.1 A candidate when moved over to another subject/ college of his/her higher option shall have to forfeit the stipend for the period equivalent to the period for which stipend is drawn already.
- 15. Commencement of the Course, Attendance, Duration of leave etc.
- 15.1 The duration of the PG Degree courses including University Examination is two years. The course commences from the date on which the first candidate joins the course. For the purpose of reckoning the duration of the course, any candidate will be deemed to have joined the course on the date on which the candidate actually commences the academic programme as certified by the Principal concerned. This date should be given as the date of joining in the Post Graduate register maintained by the University. He/she will have to complete the total duration of the course before being given the course certificate.
- 15.2 The candidate should earn the attendance for each year of the course as stipulated in the regulations of the concerned university. The student will be permitted to avail casual leave for 20 days, but not more than 10 days at a stretch. The candidate will also be eligible for leave supported by medical certificates (subject to verification by medical board) and other "leave under exceptional circumstances" recommended by the Head of Department and sanctioned by the Head of the Institution concerned subject to a maximum of 73 days per year inclusive of Sundays and Holidays without affecting the training programme. Any leave over and above 73 days in a year availed by the candidate including the leave sanctioned by the Head of the Department under exceptional circumstances will have to be compensated by adequate extension of the duration of the course for which permission of the Director of Medical education is to be sought. All the 365 days of the year are working days for post graduate students. Any other leave will entail extension of course. No stipend will be paid during the extension period. If the candidate is unauthorisedly absent for more than 10 days, he/she will be terminated from the course and liquidated damages will be levied.
- 15.3 All PG students are eligible for weekly off for one day. This will be allowed by the Head of the Department concerned without affecting the routine functioning of the Department.
- 15.4 CMEs, workshops and other academic programmes conducted by recognised academic bodies are essential aspects of PG training programme. All PG students may be permitted to attend such programmes without affecting the routine working of the Departments concerned. The Heads of Departments shall sanction duty leave to PG students provided they apply prior to the CME programme and the Head of Department is convinced about the genuinity of the programme and utility for the particular course.
- 15.5 No Post Graduate student shall leave the country without prior sanction of the Director of Medical Education/government. Any violation will be viewed seriously warranting termination from the course including recovery of liquidated damages as mentioned in clause 16.6.1.a.
- 15.6 Any student who joins the course within 73 days from the date of the commencement of the course may be permitted to appear for the examination if the student does not take any other leave during the first year of the course and completes the minimum requirement of attendance as prescribed by the university concerned for the rest of the years (11 months of the last year) on the date of commencement of the examination. These students will be deemed to have completed the course along with the first student who joined the course on the date of commencement of the course.
- 15.7 For those students who join later than 73 days from the actual date of commencement of the course as detailed above, the course will be deemed to have commenced on the actual date of their joining the course. They will have to undergo the course till the completion of the total duration of the course. However they may be permitted to appear for an examination which is scheduled after 292 days after the date of joining the course + 23 / 11 months, provided they have not taken any leave during the 292 days of the first year and have obtained the stipulated attendance during the subsequent year / years. If any student has taken leave for 10 days during the 292 days of the first year, the date of eligibility to appear for the examination will be postponed correspondingly.
