Rectification of defects in application, documents supporting reservation - Notification Issued
04.05.2015

Some of the KEAM 2015 applicants were issued Admit-Card and allowed to write the entrance examination despite their applications having certain defects. The examination results of these candidates will not be released unless they submit the rectified documents along with the printout of the memo as prescribed in their respective homepages on the website www.cee.kerala.gov.in.

Likewise, some of the candidates claiming various category reservation benefits have not been accorded the claimed category status as the documents submitted by them to prove eligibility for the concerned category status and/or 'keralite' status have been found defective and/or inadequate. These candidates will not be eligible for the reservation benefits claimed by them unless they submit the rectified documents along with the printout of the memo as prescribed in their respective homepages on the website www.cee.kerala.gov.in, on or before 12th May 2015.
