VII. General Instructions:-

- Merely appearing and qualifying in KMAT 2020 does not confer any right on the candidate for the admission to MBA Course. The selection and admission to MBA course is subject to full filling the admission criteria, eligibility and such other criteria as may be prescribed by Government, Universities and Institutions.
- Application of candidate submitting false and fabricated information will be rejected and such candidate will be further debarred from appearing in Examinations conducted by Commissioner for Entrance Examination. Such candidates are liable to be prosecuted under applicable laws for criminal offence and suitably punished.
- Incomplete application and applications not in accordance with instructions are liable to be rejected without any further intimation.
- The examination fee once deposited will not be refunded. Fee will neither be carried forward to a future examination nor refunded.
- Applications once submitted cannot be withdrawn. Candidate must note that mere deduction of fee from the Bank account is not a proof of fee payment. In the event of a successful payment, the Pay Application Fee tab on the online application screen will turn green. If the payment attempt fails, candidate should make the payment again after ensuring that the Pay Application Fee tab has not turned green even after the next login. If the account is debited in an unsuccessful transaction, under normal circumstances, steps required to be taken for the deducted amount to be refunded to the same account, will be completed within 5 working days from the date of transaction. The final confirmation page generated after the completion of the online application submission process will contain the payment transaction reference number also.

- Instructions in the information bulletin may change/be updated based on decision taken by the Commissioner for Entrance Examination and other authorities from time to time. Candidates are advised to check regularly the website www.cee.kerala.gov.in, for any further updates or information.
- Commissioner for Entrance Examination reserves the right to withdraw permission, granted inadvertently if any, to any candidate who is not eligible to appear in the KMAT 2020 even though the admit card has been issued by the Commissioner for Entrance Examination.
- Candidate eligibility for KMAT 2020 is purely provisional and is subject to fulfillment and proof of eligibility criteria prescribed by the admitting institutions as applicable.
